

Christchurch Engine Centre

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

The Christchurch Engine Centre is committed to actively managing Occupational Health & Safety to achieve a safe and healthy workplace for all employees and others who may enter our work areas by

- Comply with statutory obligations for Occupational Health & Safety and going beyond that as necessary to achieve our goals
- Continually improve EH&S management and performance
- Actively involving it's employees through a consultative teamwork approach
- Proactively managing all hazardous substances, conditions and processes
- Applying the principles of continuous improvement to enhance worker and workplace safety
- Ensuring that appropriate resources and training are provided to support safe work practices and environments
- Providing regular OHS information and reports on OHS performance to the business and it's employees
- Clearly defining, communicating and assessing both employee and employer OHS responsibilities
- Ensuring that OHS considerations are a priority in new and modified facilities, equipment, processes and services
- Rehabilitating all persons sustaining work related illness/ injury to achieve a safe and early return to work

It is the personal responsibility of every employee of the Christchurch Engine Centre to contribute to a safe and healthy work place by

- Complying with OH&S requirements and safe work practices when performing their duties, with due concern for all other persons
- Supporting improvements to eliminate or reduce workplace risks
- Immediately reporting & responding, as appropriate, to any hazardous condition
- Actively participating in any treatment or rehabilitation programmes which support an early return to work
- Foster a safety culture by engaging in an actively caring environment and looking out for the safety of each other on a daily basis
-

General Manager _____	Manager Operations & Facilities _____
Chief Financial Officer _____	Manager Engineering & IT _____
Manager QA&S & Training _____	Manger HR & EHS _____
Manager S&CS _____	Manager Materials & Logistics _____

